Scope of PI: There may be additional information that we collect that meets the definition of personal information under the CCPA but is not reflected by a category above, in which case we will treat it as personal information as required, but will not include it when we describe our practices by category of personal information.

Retention Details: The CCPA requires us to either disclose length of time we intend to retain each category of personal information listed above, or if that is not possible, the criteria used to determine the period of time it will be retained. Because there are so many different types of personal information in each category, and so many purposes and use cases for different data, we have determined that it is not possible to disclose in a clear manner how long we intend to retain each category. The criteria for determining the retention period is whether we have a legitimate purpose for the retention consistent with the collection purposes and applicable law, and/or a legal obligation or right to retain the data. For instance, we may maintain business records for so long as relevant to our business, and/or may have a legal obligation to hold PI for so long as potentially relevant to prospective or actual litigation or government investigation.

(b) Sources of PI

We may collect your PI from a number of sources, including:

- You, such as when you apply for a position or provide us with information otherwise
- Your devices
- From third parties (e.g., background check and vendors, references, job agencies), including third-party online services, and from public sources of data
- Our affiliates and related entities
- If you are an emergency contact, beneficiary, or dependent, from your family member or friend who is employed by us

(c) Use of Personal Information

Generally, we collect, retain, use, and disclose your personal information for HR business purposes and as otherwise related to the operation of our business. Our HR business purposes include the following:

- Recruitment
- Employee Intake/ Onboarding/ Offboarding
- Payroll, Reimbursements, and Timekeeping
- Benefits
- Employee activation initiatives
- Training programs and education
- HR IT Systems and Security
- Employee and Performance Management
- Health & Safety/Occupational Health
- Communicating with you (see Communications Preferences at the end of this section)
- Security (including electronic and of premises)
- Other purposes disclosed at the time you provide your information or done at your direction

Additional business purposes that apply to our business more broadly, and that may apply in the HR context, include:

- To assignees or potential assignees as part of an acquisition, merger, asset sale, or other transaction where another party assumes control over all or part of our business
- Compliance with legal obligations or legal process

- Where we believe we need to investigate, prevent, or act if we think someone might be using information for illegal activities, fraud, or in ways that may threaten someone’s safety or violate our policies or legal obligations
- Otherwise to the extent not prohibited by applicable law
- Debugging
- Performing Services
- Providing Advertising & Marketing Services (e.g., to potential applicants regarding open positions)
- Quality Assurance
- Research and Development

The italicized business purposes in the list are those that are specifically defined in the CCPA. Our vendors may also use your PI for business purposes and may engage their own service providers or subcontractors to enable them to perform services for us.

Communications Preferences

In some instances, we may provide you the choice to receive communications from or on behalf of us, such as emails or text messages, some of which may be considered promotional or marketing in nature when sent to you in the context of being a job applicant. You may unsubscribe from our email and other electronic marketing communications you receive from us as follows: (i) for promotional emails, following the instructions provided in emails to click on the unsubscribe link, or if available by changing your communication preferences by logging onto your account; (ii) for text messages, following the instructions provided in text messages from us to text the word, “STOP” (or as otherwise instructed); and (iii) for app push notifications, turn off push notifications on the settings of your mobile device.

Opting out of certain communications will not affect subsequent subscriptions and, if your opt-out is limited to certain types of electronic communications, the opt-out will be so limited. Subsequent or different subscriptions will be unaffected. Please note that we reserve the right to send you certain communications relating to your account or use of our Service and administrative and service announcements. These transactional messages will be unaffected if you choose to opt-out of marketing communications.

2. CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS HR DATA RIGHTS AND HOW TO EXERCISE THEM

Company provides California residents the privacy rights described in this section, pursuant to our obligations under the CCPA. To exercise your privacy rights, or, if you are an authorized agent of another exercising privacy rights on behalf of someone else, you can submit a request by either:

- Calling us at 1-833-803-1077 and asking to be directed to the Legal Department
- Visiting our webform

Please respond to any follow-up inquiries we make, including in relation to the request verification process that we describe further below. Please be aware that we do not accept or process requests through other means (e.g., via fax, chats, social media, etc.).

(a) Right to Know/Access

You can make “right to know” (also known as “access”) requests, as described below, up to twice in a 12-month period.

(1) Categories of Personal Information

You have the right to request that we share with you certain information about our collection, use and disclosure of your PI over the 12-month period prior to the request date. You can request that we disclose to you: (1) the categories of PI we collected about you; (2) the categories of sources for the PI; (3) our business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling that PI (i.e., if we have, in fact, sold PI); (4) the categories of third parties with whom we shared that PI; (5) a list of the categories of PI disclosed for a business purpose in the prior 12 months and, for each, the categories of recipients, or that no disclosure occurred; and (6) a list of the categories of PI sold about you in the prior 12 months and, for each, the categories of recipients, or that no sale occurred.

(2) Specific Pieces

You have the right to request a transportable copy of the specific pieces of personal information we collected about you in the 12-month period preceding your request. Please note that personal information is retained by us for various time periods, so there may be certain information that we have collected about you that we do not even retain for 12 months (and thus, it would not be able to be included in our response to you).

(b) Right to Limit Sensitive PI Processing

Certain personal information qualifies as “sensitive” under CCPA, which we refer to in this privacy policy as “Sensitive PI”. You have the right to direct businesses to limit their use and disclosure of Sensitive PI if we use or disclose it beyond certain internal business purposes. We do not believe we use or disclose Sensitive PI beyond such internal business purposes, and therefore, this does not apply to our processing of Sensitive PI.

(c) Do Not Sell / Share

You have the right to opt-out of the “sale” and “sharing” of your personal information, which are defined in the CCPA in ways that are different from their normal meanings as you may understand them. “Sale” of personal information includes “making available” of personal information to a third party, and “sharing” of personal information includes the “making available” of personal information to a third party for targeted advertising that is served based on an individual’s activity across different websites, applications, or services (defined in the CCPA as “cross-context behavioral advertising” and sometimes referred to as “interest-based advertising”). Neither concept requires money to be exchanged.

“Sales” and “sharing” of personal information may occur when third party operators of cookies and other tracking technologies (“Cookie Operators”) collect information on our websites that meet the definition of personal information (“cookie PI”). We understand that giving access to personal information on our websites to certain Cookie Operators could be deemed a “sale” and/or “sharing” under the CCPA. Therefore, we will treat such personal information (e.g., cookie ID, IP address, and other online IDs and internet or other electronic activity information) collected by Cookie Operators as such, except in circumstances where they are able to act as “service providers”, which are vendors that agree to process personal information pursuant to limited purposes. We do not sell or share non-cookie PI in the HR context.

If you would like to submit a request to opt-out of the sale/sharing of cookie PI, you need to exercise a separate opt-out request on our cookie management tool by going to the preference center of the tool by clicking here. Our cookie management tool enables you to exercise such an opt-out request and enable certain cookie preferences on your device. You must exercise your preferences on each of our websites you visit, from each browser you use, and on each device that you use. For example, our webpages that you may come from that link to, or that you navigate to after visiting, our Careers page may have cookies and other tracking technologies enabled which implicate “sale” and “sharing.” Please visit the applicable privacy policy (for example, <https://littlecaesars.com/privacy>) and choice mechanism (for example, a cookie/consent management platform), as applicable, on such webpages or websites for more information on how to opt out of “sale” and/or “sharing”, to the extent applicable. D

Since your browser opt-out is designated by a cookie, if you clear or block cookies, your preferences will no longer be effective, and you will need to enable them again via our cookie management tool. [Beware that if you use ad blocking software, our cookie banner may not appear when you visit our websites.]

The CCPA also requires us to state that we do not knowingly “sell” the PI of Consumers under 16.

We may disclose your PI for the following purposes, which are not a “sale” or “sharing”: (i) if you direct us to disclose PI; (ii) to comply with a Consumer rights request you submit to us; (iii) disclosures amongst the entities that constitute Company as defined above, or as part of a Corporate Transaction; and (iv) as otherwise required or permitted by applicable law.

(d) Opt-Out Preference Signals (also known as Global Privacy Control or GPC)

The CCPA requires businesses to process opt-out preference signals (“OOPS”), which are signals sent by a platform, technology, or mechanism, enabled by individuals on their devices or browsers, that communicates the individual’s choice to opt-out of the “sale” and “sharing” of personal information. The opt-out preference signal is also known as GPC. To use an OOPS/GPC, you can download an internet browser or a plugin to use on your current internet browser and follow the settings to enable the OOPS/GPC.

Please note that when we receive and process a GPC signal, we will apply such signal as an opt-out of Sale and Sharing as to cookie PI (per above, we do not sell/share non-cookie PI).

(e) Right to Delete

You have the right to request that we delete personal information that we collected directly from you. However, we may have retention rights or obligations that apply, such as for legal, security, or internal business purposes such as maintaining business records, which we will take into consideration when processing your request.

(f) Correct Your Personal Information

You have the right to request that we correct inaccuracies that you find in your personal information maintained by Company. Your request to correct is subject to our verification (discussed below) and the CCPA's response standards.

(g) Automated Decision Making/Profiling

We may engage in processing that constitutes automated decision-making or profiling under the CCPA. However, as of the Effective Date, the definitions of these concepts, and any associated opt-out and access rights have not been added to the updated CCPA and finalized.

(h) Non-Discrimination / No Retaliation

We will not discriminate or retaliate against you in a manner prohibited by the CCPA for your exercise of your privacy rights.

3. VERIFYING CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS' REQUESTS, AGENT REQUESTS, AND OUR RESPONSES

(a) Request Verification Process

As required by the CCPA, when you make a request, we will verify that you are the person you say you are, or, if you are seeking information on behalf of another person, that you are authorized to make the request on their behalf. In addition, we will compare the information you have provided to ensure that we maintain personal information about you in our systems. We may ask initially that you provide certain verifying information, such as the company that you applied to, first and last name, mailing address, phone number and/or email address (we may also require that you prove that you have access to the email address which you submitted when you applied). We will review the information provided as part of your request and may ask you to provide additional information via e-mail or other means as part of this verification process. We will not fulfill your Right to Know (Categories), Right to Know (Specific Pieces), Right to Delete, or Right to Correction request unless you have provided sufficient information for us to reasonably verify you are the Consumer about whom we collected PI.

The verification standards we are required to apply for each type of request vary:

We verify your categories requests and certain deletion and correction requests (e.g., those that are less sensitive in nature) to a reasonable degree of certainty, which may include matching at least two data points provided by you with data points maintained by us, which we have determined to be reliable for the purpose of verifying you. For certain deletion and correction requests (such as those that relate to personal information that is more sensitive in nature) and for specific pieces requests, we apply a verification standard of reasonably high degree of certainty. This standard includes matching at least three data points provided by you with data points maintained by us, which we have determined to be reliable for the purpose of verifying you, and may include obtaining a signed declaration from you, under penalty of perjury, that you are the individual whose personal information is the subject of the request.

If we cannot verify you in respect of a certain requests, such as if you do not provide the requested information, we will still take certain action as required by the CCPA. For example:

- If we cannot verify your deletion request, we will refer you to this privacy policy for a general description of our data practices.
- If we cannot verify your specific pieces request, we will treat it as a categories request.

(b) Agent Requests

You may use an authorized agent to make a request for you, subject to our verification of (i) the agent, (ii) the agent's authority to submit requests on your behalf, and (iii) of you. Your agent may submit a request through one of the methods listed above. Once your agent's authority is confirmed, they may exercise rights on your behalf subject to the agency requirements of applicable U.S. Privacy Laws.

(c) Our Responses

Some personal information that we maintain is insufficiently specific for us to be able to associate it with an individual (e.g., clickstream data tied only to a pseudonymous browser ID). We do not include that personal information in response to those requests. If we cannot comply with a request, we will explain the reasons in our response.

We will make commercially reasonable efforts to identify personal information that we maintain to respond to your requests. In some cases, particularly with voluminous and/or typically irrelevant data, we may suggest you receive the most recent or a summary of your PI and give you the opportunity to elect whether you want the rest. We reserve the right to direct you to where you may access and copy responsive PI yourself. We will typically not charge a fee to fully respond to your requests; provided, however, that we may charge a reasonable fee, or refuse to act upon a request, if your request is excessive, repetitive, unfounded, or overly burdensome. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, or that we may refuse it, we will give you notice explaining why we made that decision. You will be provided a cost estimate and the opportunity to accept such fees before we will charge you for responding to your request.

4. OUR RIGHTS AND THE RIGHTS OF OTHERS

We may collect, use, and disclose your PI as required or permitted by applicable law and this may override your rights and our obligations under the CCPA and as otherwise set forth in this privacy policy. In addition, we are not required to honor your requests to the extent that doing so would infringe upon our or another person's or party's rights or conflict with applicable law.
